“Living the Dash”

Maybe you remember, several years ago we read a devotional book together entitled “One Month to Live” – which was really more about living than it had to do with the limits of one month. And although the authors pointed out several things that we really have no control over, their main point was that we do get to decide how we’re going to use the time between the day that we’re born and the day God calls us home. And they shared these 4 principles that might be worthy of our reconsideration as we begin a new year together.

1. Live passionately - understand that God’s gracious desire is for you to live the life that you were called to live – to live life fully. The Apostle John wrote in his 1st letter, 5:11-12, “God has given us eternal life and this life is in His Son; whoever has the Son, has Jesus, they have life.” John is saying that life in all its fullness comes in Jesus and it is a precious, sacred gift that God gives us.

And that gift of life is beautiful and wonderful and painful and frightening and exhilarating and awe-inspiring all at the same time – that’s life – it moves fast and the years fly by so we need to understand that those years are precious; today is precious, so don’t wait to live - start living the life that you were made to live.

2. Love completely. John 13:1 says, “Jesus knew that the time had come for Him to leave this world & go to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He now showed them the full extent of His love.” Jesus willingly gave His life so that we might live now and eternally. And having been loved by our Savior, we extend that love to others - you love the people in your life and you love God with all your heart. So you put your love into action and you give your love away.

3. Learn humbly. The writer of the book of Hebrews tells us that our Lord Jesus learned that from what He suffered. There’s a unique prayer that I’ve seen for those who are suffering pain and illness and disease that they might realize that they have been chosen to be saints and that they are joined in Jesus in His suffering. We take on the character of our Savior, even in our suffering and we grow in Him.

4. Lean into our God and Savior. Psalm 46:1 says, “God is our refuge and our strength, an ever-present help in times of trouble” & because that is true the psalmist goes on to say, “therefore we will not fear; we will not give in to despair.” This is the text that inspired Martin Luther to write that great Reformation Hymn, “A Mighty Fortress is Our God”.

Knowing that God is with us as we enter this new year, trusting in this God who is our refuge and our strength, we know that He will enable and empower us so that we can live passionately and love completely and continue to learn humbly throughout this new Year. God’s richest of blessings to you in 2018!

Happy New Year

SENIORS ON THE GO Our guest speaker will be Lindsay Blackyear, from Tampa, FL. She works through a non-profit called Young Living Foundation. She speaks to bring awareness to the problems children in Africa experience because they do not wear or have any shoes. She collects children's new or gently used shoes and goes to Africa and distributes these shoes to children, mainly in slum areas.

We, at St. Michael, would like to assist in this effort. Even if you do not attend our January 14, 2018 meeting, we would like to ask for your help in donating shoes. Monetary donations are also accepted to assist with travel and shipping. Checks can be made out to the Young Living Foundation and there is also a 'Go fund Me' page.

Thank you and blessings,
Ann Sluiter, Parish Nurse

New Women's Bible Study: Anxious for Nothing

Do you feel weighed down with worry? Does the uncertainty and chaos of life keep you up at night? Could you use some calm? Max Lucado's new Bible Study: Anxious for Nothing will help us explore God's treatment plan for anxiety found in Philippians 4:4-8. Join Lori Schwan in this new five-week women's Bible study Thursday, January 11-February 8 from 10:00-11:30 AM, meeting in Pastor Jon's conference room.

LWML - would like to send out a great big THANK YOU to all who baked and purchased cookies for the Cookie Extravaganza! We could not believe the response. We asked for bakers and we got some fantastic bakers who provided us with some beautiful and delicious cookies, bars, candies and cakes! When we were assembling the cookie tins and plates we actually didn't think we could sell them all. But...we also asked for buyers and we got them! God is good and so are all of you!

Thank you to everyone who donated blood this past year! This is such an important way of contributing to our community as we truly Give the Gift of Life!

Board of Human Care would like to Thank you. We are overwhelmed by the generosity of our St. Michael families. You are the Best! Our Giving Tree and food distributions were a great success thanks to all of you.

Blessings,

25 Ways To Spiritually Lead Your Family

Ideas for men who want to leave a spiritual legacy, By Dennis Rainey

Psalm 78 tells us that we are in a spiritual relay race. You and I are taking the baton, and the type of hand-off we make will determine how the next generation follows Jesus Christ, and our assignment is to teach our children to have faith in Jesus Christ. When you read about a man's responsibility to lead his family spiritually, the normal suggestions include organizing family devotions, leading spiritual discussions with children, and helping kids understand a biblical worldview. Those are all crucial, but this list is a bit different! I've found that there are many other ways—some less formal—to influence your wife and children spiritually. So here are 25 coaching tips for men who want to step up to spiritual leadership with their families.

Ministering to your wife:

1. Pray daily with your wife.
2. Write a love letter that she'd like to receive.
3. Discover her top three needs and over the next 12 months go all out to meet them.
4. Buy her a rose. Take her in your arms. Hold her face gently. Look into her eyes and say "I'd marry you all over again!"
5. Take her on a weekend getaway.
6. Read the Scriptures to her.
7. Replace the "D-word" with the "C-word"! (D=Divorce, C=Commitment)
8. Court her.
9. Remain faithful to her.
10. Fulfill your marriage covenant.

Leading your family:

11. Schedule a family time at least one night a week.
12. Use circumstances to teach your children to trust God.
13. Protect your family from evil.
14. Restrain your teenagers' passion.
15. Set spiritual goals for your children.
16. Take one or two of your children on mission trips.
17. Catch your kids doing something right—and let them know you caught them.
18. Date your daughters.
19. Inspect what you expect.
20. Do a breakfast Bible study with your teens (15 and older), and study the book of Proverbs.
21. Hug and kiss your sons and daughters.
22. Ask your children for forgiveness when you fail them.
23. Pray with them.
24. Call them to a spiritual mission to do what God wants to do with their life.
25. Persevere and don't quit.

"He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly"
Acts 10:2.

Voices of Angels

Here's a date to enter on your fresh, clean 2018 calendars: April 28th. You won't want to miss this! Earthly angels' voices, for sure, will fill the sanctuary on April 28th, at 7:00 PM, as the City of Palms Youth Choir celebrates its second season of performances, singing for the Family St. Michael. Tickets are not required but plan to arrive early for the best seating. Director Matt Koller announced that the choir will be singing the world premiere of a piece composed especially for the City of Palms Youth Choir by Thomas LaVoy. LaVoy is a gifted young composer who has studied with Paul Mealor and James Jordan. Some of his compositions include "Salvator Mundi" and "The Same Stream", both of which can be heard on You Tube. Dr. LaVoy wrote "The Same Stream" for Director Matt Koller and it also premiered in Fort Myers.

The concert is the choir's gift to the community and to St. Michael, although donations for student scholarships are always gratefully appreciated! We have not turned away any gifted vocalist due to their ability to pay. Currently we have four talented young people who rely on scholarships to participate.

The City of Palms Youth Choir is the youth component of the Fort Myers Symphonic Mastersingers. The Mastersingers are well-known throughout our community and are guest performers at the annual Prayer Breakfast in May.

For more information about the choir, please go to www.mastersingersfm.com or follow them on Facebook. The Youth Choir's information is available on their website.
