

OBITUARY

Randal “Randy” Borges Middleton (September 28, 1956 – June 20, 2025) was a lifelong Lee County resident and a proud Fort Myers High School graduate. He was a member of the wrestling team, but he was most passionate about "greenie" football. Randy's obsession with the game did not go unnoticed by the legendary Coach Sam Sirianni, Sr., and as fate would have it, a deep love affair began between Randy, the Sirianni family, and “greenie” football.

For the next 50 years, Randy could be seen every Friday night under the lights, cheering on and pumping up his football brothers on the sidelines. His happiest days were spent on the field, and in 2016, he was inducted into the Green Wave's Emerald Club, the football team's Hall of Fame. Randy reluctantly stepped down from his final volunteer position as the "get back coach" when his health no longer allowed him to continue.

Randy also worked for Publix Super Markets for 44 years, holding various positions in customer service. He rarely missed a day of work and was a loyal and dedicated employee until his retirement.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Fort Myers High School football program, earmarked Randy Middleton, to continue supporting the team Randy so deeply loved.

The Promise of Baptism

Pastor: In Holy Baptism, Randy was clothed with the robe of Jesus' righteousness that covers all sin. Saint Paul says, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?"

People: We were buried therefore with Him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with Him in a death like His, we shall certainly be united with Him in a resurrection like His."
